Meet Miss Van Lue

Meet Miss Van Lue
Who will introduce this book to you,
The faculty first, we want you to meet,
The classes next, with a friendly greet.

We cherish those who have made new friends,
And hate to see this year come to an end,
To the sports news, we tip our hats,
And give our thanks to the Wildcats.

To all of you, be good and true,
And always loyal to old Vanlue.

Miss Van Lue Meets the Faculty

At the beginning of the school term Miss Van Lue did much worrying about her teachers. But she soon learned that the hand of the teacher is intended to guide the enlightened, to encourage the hesitant, to rebuke the negligent, and to laud the successful. Now she expects that lift, that encouragement, yes—that rebuke and that praise.

MY EDUCATIONAL CREED

By F. V. Miner

To teach faith in things that are,
 To have visions of things to be.

To love the truth,
 To have the courage of convictions.

To esteem the individual,
 To uphold and respect true reverence.

To cherish the American Way,
 To believe in the national future.

Miss Van Lue Goes to Class

Miss Van Lue, after donning her favorite sweater and skirt, and giving her hair a final brush, hurries for her initial day at Vanlue. Entering the north door and following the older students to the upper floor, she tries to slip unnoticed into a back seat during roll call. After puzzling over her schedule, she heads for the first period class. Soon the unfamiliar muddle becomes a smooth routine and it is a common occurrence to see Miss Van Lue going to class.

Class History

We have at last reached the goal for which we have been striving through our twelve years of school.

We took our first step toward the end of our school career in the fall of '43. Jeanne Waugh was our sponsor and officers were: President, Robert Fry; Vice President, Kent Dukes; Secretary-Treasurer, Helen Cole. We chose as our class colors—Red and Black; class flower—Red Rose; class motto—"Tonight we launch, where shall we anchor."

We became Sophomores, with Rose Dehnhoff as our sponsor, and President, Frances Marshall; Vice President, Donna Mae Miller; Secretary-Treasurer, Edith Risner; Reporter, Joann Patrick; as our councilmen.

Our next step was taken into our Junior year. We presented the Junior play, "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works", which proved to be a great success. Our next great success was the Junior-Senior Banquet. Under the supervision of Virginia Reber and President, Edith Risner; Vice President, Claren Thomas; Secretary, Donna Mae Miller; Treasurer, Betty Sausser; Reporter, Rebecca Puckett; the Junior year came to a glorious close.

We began our Senior year with Lorine Oman as our supervisor; President, Donald Broadwater; Vice President, Mary Louise King; Secretary-Treasurer, Betty Sausser; Reporter, Edith Risner. We presented the Senior play, "The Ghost In The Belfry" and published the "Scarlet and Gray". Both were successful. We were the honored guests at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Our school career was brought to a close with the Commencement exercises on May 17. We shall always remember the pleasant times we had at Vanlue.

The Class Prophecy

The rocket settled its huge bulk on the stony surface of the moon. All the passengers, including myself, alighted. We were quite dizzy at first and had a difficult time getting our bearings. Then the great telescope, which we brought along to gaze at the earth, was rolled out and set up in the best location. When it finally came my turn to look through the telescope I had the thrill of my life. For I realized that I could not only look at the earth but I could locate my former classmates on the earth.

I turned the great lens until I could plainly see the little village of Vanlue. But to my great surprise it was no longer little; it had grown to be of considerable size. And there I found the first of my former classmates, Donna Mae Miller, now happily married to Charles Bibler. Charles is now the head manager of Hochstettler Grain & Supply, which has grown to be a great international firm. And there I left them and upon further surveying the town I found Louise Shaffer who long since had become Mrs. Burdette Pratt. They were living in a beautiful apartment which Louise kept spotlessly clean despite the destruction of her three off-springs.

Then I moved on to Chicago, Illinois, to find Jean Coldren at Marshall Field in the interior decorating department. She has been very successful and has planned and decorated the homes of many famous people, including plans for the proposed new addition to the White House.

I had been abroad for so many years studying music that I had lost all communication with my good friend, Edith Risner. I began to search for her and located her in the great New York City, where I found her working as one of the famous Powers models. I watched her model a lovely evening gown and then moved on to Hollywood to visit Marcella Hendricks and Helen Cole, the head make-up artists at Warner Brothers. Then on to Texas to find Orville Cook busy at work, branding Long Horn Cattle, and making a great success of ranching.

I began to wonder what had become of Helen Mae Grant and upon turning the lens a bit, I found her living in Norfolk, Virginia, in order that she might be near her husband, a captain in the Navy. I found Betty Sausser and Mary Louise King as private secretaries in Washington, D. C. And then turning back to Ohio, I found Donald Broadwater standing proudly in his field of 12-foot hybrid corn. Claren Thomas I found to be in his chosen occupation that of a "Successful Farmer." I located Raymond Walters in the Episcopalian parsonage studying his manuscript for Sunday's sermon. I took one last look through the telescope and moved on to make room for the next person.

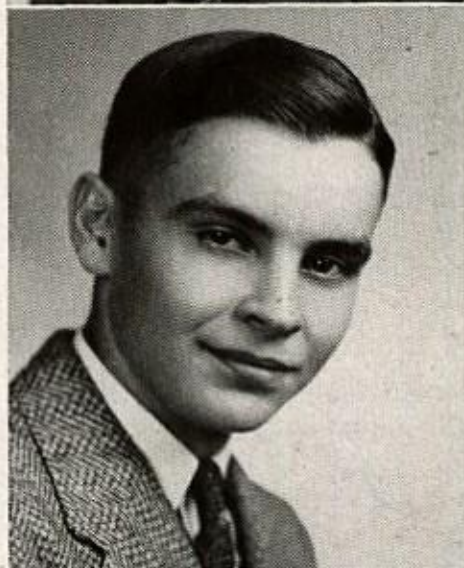

Frances Marshall.

Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1946 of Vanlue High School, realizing that our school days are drawing to a close, do hereby make and publish this, our last will and testament.

We give and bequeath our various properties and characteristics as follows:

ARTICLE I—Marcella Hendricks leaves her ability to cheerlead to Donald Roberts and Raymond Dirmeyer.

ARTICLE II—Donna Mae Miller wills her taste for pretty clothes to Norma Schubert.

ARTICLE III—Louise Shaffer intrusts her mischievous nature to Donald Bechtel.

ARTICLE IV—Frances Marshall bequeaths her singing ability to James Dean.

ARTICLE V—Chuck Bibler leaves his curls to Jack Marshall. (Take 'em Jack they're women killers.)

ARTICLE VI—Claren Thomas wills his desire for keeping early hours to Herbert Hendricks.

ARTICLE VII—Betty Sausser intrusts her giggles to Ruth Tanner.

ARTICLE VIII—Raymond Dale Walters leaves his ways with the women to Dale Wisner.

ARTICLE IX—Jean Coldren leaves ability to study to Doris Jean Bayless and who ever may want it. (Keep to the right and don't push—someone might get hurt.)

ARTICLE X—Mary Louise King bequeaths her height to Virginia Parish and Helen McCormick.

ARTICLE XI—Edith Risner wills her long black hair to Marilyn Beck.

ARTICLE XII—Donald Broadwater bequeaths his shyness to Robert Sherrick and Raymond Hendricks.

ARTICLE XIII—Orville Cook bequeaths his friendly nature and ready laugh to Marilou Woodruff.

ARTICLE XIV—Helen Mae Grant wills her quiet nature to Carolyn Richards and Calvin McCormick.

ARTICLE XV—The Senior Class wills the little brown jug to the Junior Class.

ARTICLE XVI—To the Sophomores we leave our wisdom and good manners.

ARTICLE XVII—To the Freshmen we leave our dignity and ability to look innocent. (Even though we are guilty.)

ARTICLE XVIII—The Senior Class bequeaths to the members of the faculty its sincere thanks and gratitude for the patience and deep understanding they have shown us during our school days.

ARTICLE XIX—We, the Senior Class, do hereby extend our whole-hearted appreciation and thanks to the Board of Education and to our parents who have helped to make our school days the most happy and memorable of our life.

ARTICLE XX—We hereby appoint Donald Bechtel executor of this will and testament.

ARTICLE XXI—In testimony we hereby sign and seal this last will and testament of the Senior Class of 1946.

WHAT THE JUNIORS HAVE ACHIEVED

When we, twenty-one Juniors, embarked upon our third year of high school, we realized that our road would at times be a trying and busy one, but we also realized that we would finally reach the achievement we desired.

With Donald Bechtel as president, Norma Schubert as vice-president, Doris Jean Bayless as secretary-treasurer, and Ruth Tanner as reporter, we diligently began our task.

While most of our Junior boys were fighting for Vanlue's honors in the football and basketball games, the ambitious girls sold pop corn and hot dogs to finance our class activities.

In the spring the class surprised the school and community by successfully presenting the play, "Her Emergency Husband." This required much of our time and effort, but we willingly devoted our talents to this event.

Near the end of the school year we treated the Seniors to a royal feast at the Junior-Senior Banquet held at The Phoenix Hotel on May 8th.

Miss Reber was our class sponsor for the year. We have truly appreciated her efforts to guide and better our class.

After spending one term learning the ways of upper classmen, we returned in the fall of '45 as Sophomores.

With Mrs. Peterman as our sponsor, we elected the following officers: Marjorie Barber, President; Norman Pratt, Vice President; Elmer Walter, Secretary-Treasurer.

Determined to make a name for ourselves, we participated in football, basketball and all other social activities of the school. We proved our skill in salesmanship by operating the "pop" concession. This brought us many joys and sorrows, and a little cash.

As we adjourn school for this term, we find we have learned and accomplished much which will help us on the road ahead. We now look forward to being Juniors and taking an even greater part in the various activities of the school.

Absent: Tom Sherick, Norma Thomas.

On a sunny morning in early September, twenty-four verdant but earnest freshmen left the haven of elementary education and became students of secondary education at Vanlue High. We were cordially welcomed by upper classmen.

The next few days were a period of confusion getting to and from classes. The halls echoed with "Freshies", "Greens", and so on. By the end of the first semester we were well accustomed to the ways and personnel of the school, and settled down to hard and earnest labor which leads to success.

We did our bit for Vanlue High by taking an active part in all sports. For recreation we enjoyed a class party and were included in the F.F.A.-F.H.A. skating party. We showed what we could really do by winning the magazine sales contest.

Our officers elected were: President, Dorothy Cook; Vice President, Robert Lee; Secretary-treasurer, Rose Bechtel; Sponsor, Mrs. James. Our Class flower, yellow rose.

This ends the first part of our high school career. To the Freshmen to come we extend our sincere wishes for success.

Miss Van Lue Makes Friends

A great problem faces Miss Van Lue when she enters school. That is the job of making friends. Although new, she is doing well in her efforts to make friends. Already she is planning to attend all class and high school parties. Also she is soon to be included in the membership of several school organizations. Miss Van Lue is so friendly to all we are sure she will soon be included in everyone's list of friends.

Band

The Band! Ah, yes the band! They have struggled through the year with 31 members, 6 of them being drum majorettes who have done an excellent job of twirling. They started the year in the old groove of squeaks and squawks, but now under the guidance and leadership of Mrs. James they have made a clear groove that is definitely smooth. To the great heartbreak of all the members, they are losing four of the best players by graduation this year. Mrs. James has very promising players who will start in the band next year. Good luck, kids.

Each home football game found our band entertaining the crowds with new parade stunts. Also at several basketball games they were tooting away. These marching maneuvers and the band's large musical repertoire represented hours of drill under the direction of Mrs. James.

In order to improve the appearance of the band, Mrs. James suggested that uniforms be purchased for them. The matter was presented to the P.T.A. and it was decided that they should help sponsor the project. $50 was voted to be paid from the P.T.A. fund, and a canvass of every resident of the school district brought the total to $550.

The band members extend their sincerest thanks to everyone who contributed.

Nicky and Arlene want to get a divorce, but if Nicky's Aunt Hazel finds it out he will be cut off from every cent of her money. When Nicky and Arlene decide to separate and leave their apartment, Arlene gives it to Dot Dolson and Nicky without knowing what Arlene has done, gives the apartment to Bill Jones. Things begin to pop when Bill's fiancée, Audrey Hardwick, and her uncle arrive to spend the week end. Dot pretends to be the maid. Then Dot's fiancée comes and Bill has to pretend to be her husband, and Elberta Peach plays the chamber maid. Nicky's aunt come to town to see him and Nicky can't find Arlene, so he has Dot to pretend to be his wife. Each one thinks all the others are crazy and so aren't on speaking terms. Aunt Jubilee keeps telling about her husband who left her five years ago. Aunt Hazel and Mrs. Jarboe arrive and Mrs. Jarboe wants to see her daughter, Arlene, who isn't there. She suspects Nicky of murdering her.

In the meantime a wildman is loose from the circus and is scaring everyone.

When Arlene arrives they all tell the truth, Nicky and Arlene go back together, Audrey and Wilmer are interested in each other, and Dot and Bill seem to be in love. Aunt Jubilee's husband comes home after five years and everyone is happy.

When Dee Barclay and Eric Gregory come back to an old deserted church to be married, where they were once childhood sweethearts, the mystery begins. Dee Barclay brings Dora Conroy, Rita Trask, and Penny Gifford as her attendants. Allen Newcomb comes as Eric's best man. When John Dagmar, the minister, arrives, he tells them of the Phantom that roams the old, deserted church, and they see the Phantom for themselves. Uriah Vinton, the town marshal of Badger's Bend, adds comedy to the mystery. Selma and Sadie Otis, a couple of old maids, are working with the Phantom, but their rhyming scheme fools everyone. Everyone thinks they are just a couple of innocent, old maids. It all ends well when Dee and Eric finally get married, but Rita and John, Penny and Allen make it a triple wedding.

Miss Van Lue Cheers the Home Team

Leading our cheering sections for our football and basketball squads this year were two excellent cheerleaders. They were Marcela Hendricks and Bonnie Crawford who were the heart of the morale which kept our squads driving forth to very successful campaigns in both football and basketball. The squads wish to express their deepest appreciation to the followers of the team who supported them through the season, and to commend the fine work of our cheer-leaders.
